

“ TESTIMONIALS ”

“ It is the perfect mix of entertainment, education and motivation. Hands down, the best lecture we have had all year. ”

- Tim Fraser (Entertainment Programmer, Fanshawe Student Union)

“ Shaun Boothe provided one of the most engaging and energetic key notes to have ever graced the atrium of Goodes Hall at Queen’s University. ”

- Richard Baugh (Vice President, Speakers. 2014 Queen’s School of Business Innovation Summit)

“ His performance was very informative and refreshing. Shaun made sure to have everyone’s attention and hold it throughout the entire performance. ”

- Carrigan Desjardins (Vice President Student Life Saint Mary’s University Students’ Association)

“ I recently booked Shaun to be the keynote speaker at our 5th Annual TDSB Stand Up Conference. Shaun was not only our youngest but possibly one of our best keynotes we’ve had to date. The way he mixed his strong message of character and education with the performance of his incredible Biography Series videos had the whole audience captivated – students and adults alike. His musical performance consists of historical content, based on a literacy approach that will engage youth. ”

- Gary Crossdale (TDSB Administrator, Caring and Safe Schools)

“ I would highly recommend Shaun as a guest speaker to challenge and empower our youth to be responsible and caring individuals. ”

- Joan Tschernow (Cardinal Newman Catholic High School, Principal)

“ Shaun brings a refreshing new light to older topics that the students really appreciate and more importantly can relate to. I personally recommend the Biography Series as it is a unique, refreshing and important approach to teaching students about influential and historically significant figures in our modern day lives. ”

- Eric Johnson (Peel Alternative School South, Teacher)

“ The imagery and descriptions illustrated by Mr. Boothe’s lyrical ability not only captures the attention of the audience, but it stirs the creativity in the minds of young children. ”

- Sultan Rana (Donald Cousens Public School, teacher)

“ TESTIMONIALS ”

“ Shaun’s ideas about identity and multiculturalism certainly made impressions on my students, and many actually went as far as to cite him in their final exam essays. I have tried time and again to get my students to consider the value of historical knowledge and interest beyond simply writing historical essays. Shaun’s videos presented this idea better than I ever could have. ”

- Jason Hawkins (Crestwood Preparatory College, History, Geography, World Religions and Classic Civilizations teacher)

“ To me, this seems to follow in Shaun’s messages of empowerment and also arming our vulnerable young communities with the knowledge of the great leaders who have come before them and the struggles they have gone through. Which of course is necessary in order to have a clear understanding of where you are headed. What is so critical about the work that Shaun is doing is that the information he is sharing is couched in a relevant form of media that young people are not only open to, but searching for. ”

- Gavin Sheppard (The Remix Project, Executive Director)

“ Shaun does a brilliant job of illustrating stories through his music, which is suitable for audiences of all ages. Shaun’s show is packed with high enthusiasm and passion and he does an incredible job of educating his audience through his creative story telling. The visuals used during his performance are a perfect complement to his stories. ”

- Neil Cumberbatch (Senior Coordinator, Events & Marketing – Student Association of George Brown College)

“ Knowing his level of success and popularity as a recording artist/entertainer here in Canada, I had full confidence that Shaun would be a great musical entertainer and more importantly, a motivational speaker for my students. However, what impressed me even more was the substance and power of his words when the music was not playing. His presentation was truly one of a kind and something my students still talk about to this day. I would recommend Shaun Boothe to any school or organization that involves engaging the youth of today, as his talents, story and passion make him a true inspiration. ”

- Rachael Chen, (Blessed Cardinal Newman C.S.S, Teacher)

“ TESTIMONIALS ”

“ Our school absolutely loved Shaun and we are grades 4-9. Our kids and staff were in awe of the presentation and it could be by far the best presenter we’ve ever had. The presentation rated beyond what we could have hoped for! He touched our hearts and inspired many kids/staff. ”

- Mandi Connolley (Captain Nichola Coddard Junior High, Calgary, AB)

“ I just wanted to email back how much we enjoyed Shaun’s performance & thought it was entirely suitable for our Gr. 5-9 students. Shaun was very personable, professional & taught our students a great deal of valuable lessons. We are definitely interested in having him back at our school in about 3 years, so he can have the same impact on our future students. ”

- Tanya Griffith (Balmoral Junior High, Calgary, AB)

“ One of our top 5 presentations we’ve ever had. The most effective part was that it was a hip hop presentation with a good mix of music and message. ”

- Brian Sawchuk (St. Joseph Catholic High School, Grande Prairie, AB)

“ Although we were familiar with the leaders you sang about (Martin Luther King Jr., Barack Obama, Terry Fox, Muhammad Ali, Bob Marley), your approach to their lives was so unique and refreshing that we learned a great deal more than any class or documentary could teach us in the same amount of time. You made each of their stories come to life and you perfectly illustrated how every one of them was a leader while highlighting the same traits that we can personally find within ourselves. ”

- Melissa MacIntyre (History Department Head & D.A.R.E. Leadership Advisor, Banting S.S. London, ON)
